

Membership Entitlements

East Gippsland Primary Health Alliance offers a range of benefits to its members.

Some of these benefits are listed below.

Please note that some entitlements will only be applicable to Registered Health Care Professionals.

Eligibility to stand for election to Division Board and nominate for other Division committees	Priority referral opportunities (where applicable)
Eligibility to vote at Annual General Meeting	Access to clinical management resources in EGPHA Library (clinical management guidelines, immunisation resource guide, educational CD library, Government publications etc.)
Remuneration for attendance at Advisory Committees (where applicable)	Priority access to social events
United voice to both State and Federal Government	Discount travel through Corporate Traveller Service (Conditions Apply)
Industrial advice from VHIA (Victorian Hospitals Industrial Association)	Priority access to Network events
Priority access to education events and training workshops	Free advertising on EGPHA website (Within EGPHA policy guidelines)
Priority access to workforce and locum support	Access to secured chat room site on EGPHA website
Access to services, support and advice (e.g. IT & IM, accreditation, Health Promotion, HR & practice management)	Attendance assistance (where applicable) at National and State Forums

